

Police Nab Theft Suspect After Chase by Dairyman

A 20-year-old youth was arrested on suspicion of burglary Tuesday morning, shortly after a dairy owner chased an intruder across a dark field.

Morgan Moore said he was awakened during the night by his dog, and when he investigated, spotted two youths inside the kitchen of his home, 20361 Earl St.

He immediately gave chase, but the suspects eluded him as they sprinted across a dark field.

Later police arrested Gene A. Hembre, 20, of Hawthorne, at Del Amo Blvd. and Anza Ave. on suspicion of burglary. The suspect told officers his car had broken down at the location.

Several other reported burglaries and thefts kept police hopping since the weekend.

Two garbage disposals were stolen from homes under construction at 24223 and 24233 Madison St. The Rodrick Construction Co., which made the report, estimated loss at $80.

Donald Bowers, of 3779 W. 177 St., said that when he returned home from a long vacation, he found two rings and a watch missing.

Approximately $100 of tools were stolen from the garage of
